“Sunrise Waterfall”

“Sunrise Waterfall is a waterfall I created from my imagination. I wanted the viewer to imagine walking down a jungle path to a tropical waterfall in the early morning to go for a swim in the calm waters of the pools below.”

“Island Barrel”

“The act of surfing has had a strong hold on me since my first wave in Waikiki, not just the riding of the wave, but the whole experience. This is one of many images that stick in my head from the paddle out. The moment where you are just scratching to get over the oncoming wave but you have to stop and stare at the sheer beauty right next to you.”

“Rainbow Falls”

“Rainbow Falls is a beautiful waterfall near Hilo on the Big Island of Hawai‘i. It is such a nice place to be and mid to late morning you can usually see rainbows in the mist of the falling water. It is such a special place to spend some time and explore.”

“Windansea”

“Windansea is the heart of old time San Diego surfing culture in my opinion. From the early days to now, there have always been such huge innovators coming from this great little spot in La Jolla. The Windansea shack is a true landmark and a place I always love to visit when I get to San Diego.”
